Thirty Thousand Greeks And Armenians Plod Way To Unknown Destinations

Eighteen Hundred Years Of Stormy History In Adrianople Have Never Seen Such Scenes As Christians Flee Turks

ADRIANOPLE, Oct. 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Thirty thousand Greeks and Armenians have passed from this city to the west since Saturday and the road between here and the Maritza river is an unbroken line of men, women and children, with ox carts, cattle and camels.

Through a steady downpour of rain they are plodding doggedly toward their unknown destinations, driven forward by the nameless fear which has gripped the whole populace of eastern Thrace since the government's bulletins were posted on Saturday.

day announcing the terms of the Mudania armistice. The procession has been orderly but the misery of the refugees is already extreme, and pneumonia will claim many victims, if the present inclement weather continues. Perhaps never in the eighteen hundred years of its stormy history, has Adrianople witnessed such scenes.

When, on Saturday, the Greek civil authorities attempted to reassure the people by stating that the Turkish gendarmerie would not arrive for fifteen days, the Christian inhabitants simply refused to believe them. Nearly every Christian family in Adrianople gathered up all they could carry either on their backs or on ox carts, and as soon as possible were off.

Meanwhile Adrianople has taken on the appearance of a deserted city with the shops and houses closed. The Greek and Armenian priests remain and are doing conspicuous work in assisting the fleeing inhabitants.

Two troop trains leave daily for western Thrace and there is no more talk of resistance among the soldiers. The French detachments of allied troops of occupation arrived yesterday. Expressions of regret are heard that the English are not coming to Adrianople having been assigned to Rodosto.

Allied airplanes have flown over the city at a moderate height for the last few days, apparently taking photographs to show the orderly character of the evacuation. One of the aviators who landed said he was under orders to observe carefully whether there was any evidence of burning villages, thus far he had seen none.

HUGE DIRIGIBLE C-2 BURNS

MAN AND WOMAN MAY SOON BE IN TOILS

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Francis Stevens Hall and her recent brother, Willie Stevens, were brought to the court house by Detective Fred David shortly after 11:00 o'clock today for further questioning by authorities investigating the murder of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills.

Shortly before their arrival, County Prosecutors Beckman of Somerset and Stricker of Middlesex—who have indicted at least two arrests before—began questioning Henry Stevens, another brother of Mrs. Hall, who had driven over from his home in Lafayette in response to a summons.

The authorities later planned to question Miss Florence North, attorney for Charlotte Mills, the slain woman's daughter, to ask her as to the authenticity of letters purported to have been written by Mr. Hall to Mrs. Mills which were published this morning by a New York newspaper.

The letters, couched in endearing terms of the most extravagant nature, were reported to have been obtained from Charlotte. The authorities want to know how the newspaper got them when they were withheld from those seeking to solve the double slaying mystery. Charlotte Mills, daughter of the slain choir singer, was taken from her class in high school and accompanied to the court house by a state trooper.

After they had been in the court house for about three hours, Mrs. Hall with two women companions entered and returned to the Hall house. Henry and Willie Stevens remained for further questioning.

A short time later Willie Stevens said that Henry Stevens left the prosecutor's office. It was learned that Willie had been questioned separately as to whether any one left the Hall house between the time Mr. Hall left it and the hour when the murders are believed to have been committed—about 9:20 p. m. He replied that no one had left, so far as he knew.

Charlotte Mills was excused after she had been questioned for about 100 on hour.

All the witnesses it was learned, were questioned separately and were brought face to face to iron out discrepancies in their stories.

Persons close to the prosecutors of both Somerset and Middlesex counties, who have been in charge of the investigation predicted that a man and woman would be arrested on charges of first degree murder before the day closes.

Do Tell! Trousers With Corset Effects The Style

CHICAGO, October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—The correctly attired man of the next few months will wear trousers with a corset effect, delegates to the National Clothiers' Convention, asserted here today and exhibited models to prove it. A pliable belt permanently attached to each side of the trousers and drawn around and fastened in front gives the corset effect. The back is unsupported. Norfolk coats with corset effect belts and a top overcoat provided with an effective yoke will be popular, the clothiers said.

Court Fight Over Ship Liquor Rule

NEW YORK, October 17.—(By the United Press)—Owners of trans-Atlantic liners were characterized as saloon keepers by United States District Attorney William Hayward, who defended the "Dry Seas" order of Attorney General Daugherty in federal court here today. Hayward spoke to Judge Learned Hand against the application of the White Star and other lines for a permanent injunction restraining enforcement of the order which would forbid ships carrying liquor entering American ports after Saturday.

"Owners of foreign vessels have been treated very fairly by the United States government, especially the British," stated Hayward. Before Hayward spoke against the injunction James P. Nolan, representing the French line, said enforcement of the order would be a violation of treaties existing between the United States and France.

NEW YORK, October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Whether the mere presence of liquor in sea stores on foreign vessels comes within the scope of the eighteenth amendment and the national prohibition act is the real issue in Attorney General Daugherty's dry ship ruling, said Van Vechten Veeder, counsel for the White Star Line, in arguments today before Federal Judge Hand as to the validity of the ruling.

Mr. Veeder declared that foreign vessels had been allowed to carry liquor in their sea stores ever since prohibition became effective and this right was not questioned until October 6, when the Daugherty opinion was promulgated.

Here's Catastrophe! 4,000 Ukes Burn

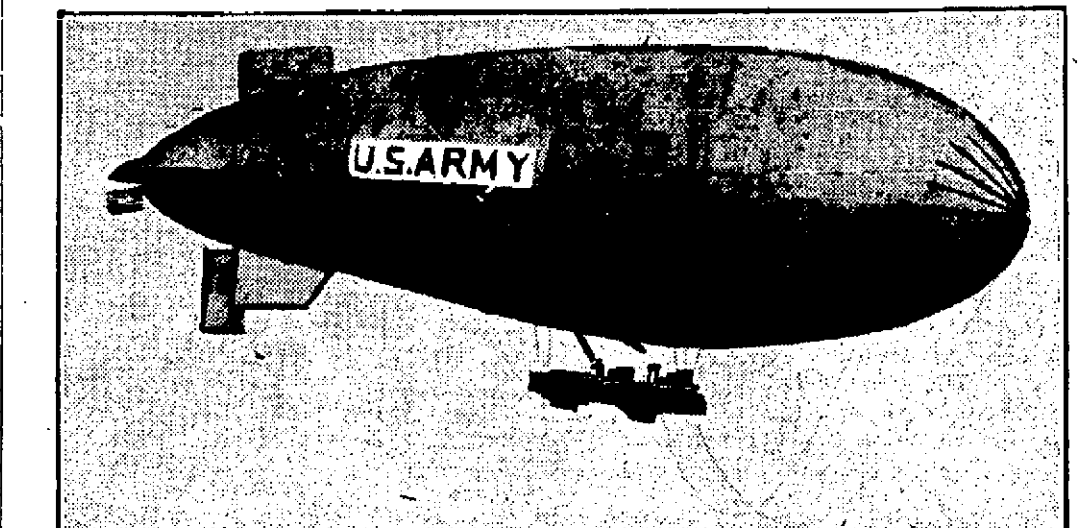

HONOLULU, October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Upwards of 4,000 ukuleles went up in smoke yesterday when fire of unknown origin destroyed what was said to be the largest ukulele factory in the world. The loss is estimated at $10,000. Jonah Kumalea, who sometimes is known as the "Ukulele King", owned the plant.

COLUMBUS—W. E. Riley, former county auditor of Athens county, was appointed a special investigator of the state tax commission by Governor Davis.

Chinese Do Not Think Much Of American Oath But Court Has Power To Jail If They Violate It

NEW YORK, October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Taking a court oath on the Bible means absolutely nothing to a Chinese, Judge Alfred J. Talley, presiding in general sessions court at the trial of Tom Yee, charged with the murder in Chinatown last August, of Ko Low, Hip Sing Tong president, has learned. Noting the countenance of the Confucian witnesses during the hearing, Judge Talley said to the interpreter: "How much does this oath really mean to a Chinese?" "Absolutely nothing," was the reply of the interpreter who went on to explain the kind of oath that would mean something to Chinese.

Pride Of The Army Destroyed By Fire

The army's newest dirigible, the giant C-2, was completely destroyed by fire here today. The blimp returning from a cross country flight, from San Diego, Cal., caught fire and was being towed away from a hangar for an exhibition flight over the city.

Major H. A. Strauss, commander of the ship, was saved by flames before he could clamor from the burning cockpit. Sergeant A. E. Albright, of the C-2's crew was seriously injured in the fire and Captain N. M. Walker, also to Major General Hines, commander of the 8th corps area, and Manuel Cardenas, newspaper man, also were injured.

A strong gust of wind from the north blew the mammoth blimp against the door of the hangar, ripping the big envelope as the balloon was starting for the flight. Both motors were running and as the gasoline tank exploded, the big gas bag burst into flames. Ten minutes later only a twisted, charred mass remained of the pride of the army's aviation section.

Eight passengers narrowly escaped as the fire broke out and quickly consumed the flimsy bag.

Major J. L. Thompson and Captain Jeffrey Montague, of the Military Intelligence Department, of the 8th corps area headquarters, were among the passengers. The others were newspaper men of San Antonio and Houston.

The balloon arrived here Saturday on its return to Langley Field, Va. Several storms were encountered between San Diego, Cal., and El Paso, Texas, and Major Strauss announced he would delay here a week for repairs.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Those injured when the C-2 fell here today and burned are: Major John MacL. Thompson, wrist broken. Sergeant August S. Albrecht, leg broken. Ben Baines, newspaper man of San Antonio, arm broken and possible internal injuries. (Continued on Page Two)

Shackles Used On Inmates

COLUMBUS, O., October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Hearing of the appeal of Captain R. U. Hastings, deposed superintendent of the Lancaster Boys' Industrial School on charges of incompetency, neglect of duty, misfeasance, and nonfeasance in office was continued here today before the State Civil Service Commission.

After about 40 witnesses are heard here the scene will shift to Lancaster where about 100 more witnesses will be called, it was said.

Testimony of five former inmates at the hearing yesterday brought out that shackles were used on boys who ran away from the institution and that whippings were meted out to youths who violated rules. Goulash was the principal dish for noon and evening meals, the boys testified.

Turks Fire On American Destroyer; Commander Escapes

MITTYLINE, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Dr. Mabel Elliott of Benton Harbor, Michigan, who has been director of medical work for the refugees on the islands of Smyrna coast will leave this week for Athens, having been invited by the American relief committee to become medical director for the entire refugee area.

Upon her return Sunday from Chios, Dr. Elliott said she had met Lieutenant Commander Herbert A. Ellis of the American destroyer MacLeish.

"The Turks had again fired on the destroyer at Iverly (Aivali?) and a rifle bullet came within a few feet of Commander Ellis," she said. (Dispatches from Athens early this month said an American destroyer had been bombarded by the Turks. The report at the time was discredited in Washington because of the lack of official confirmation through the navy department.)

TOLEDO—Amelia Snyder, widow, died of burns received when her clothing caught fire in her home.

SCORE OF PASSENGERS ESCAPE DEATH, SEVERAL RECEIVE INJURIES

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, October 17.—(By the United Press)—The army's newest dirigible, the giant C-2, was completely destroyed by fire here today. San Francisco Gets Next Meet

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 17.—(By The United Press)—The American Legion convention here today voted to hold the 1923 convention in San Francisco, Oct. 15-19, inclusive. The convention approved without discussion, the report of its committee on time and place for the next meeting.

Legionnaires today filled the city to overflowing. Crowds in the streets are so dense that it is difficult to walk about. The authorities literally have turned the city over to the visitors and anything goes. At night the city, gaily decorated with allied flags and colored lights, becomes a carnival. The groups from different states in uniforms and grotesque costumes parade about.

Ad Wrong; Police Called

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Police reserves had to be called out yesterday to explain a typographical error in a newspaper advertisement which announced that a five-room apartment in the Bronx could be rented for $10 a month. The advertisement should have read "$40 a month."

Master Criminal Escapes

LOS ANGELES, CAL., October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Herbert Wilson, known by police and federal operatives as a "master criminal" convicted of murder of his pal, Herbert Cox, escaped from the county jail here with another convicted murderer, Adam Ward and Guido Spignola, held on a robbery charge.

The three outside the jail held up a postoffice employee and taking his automobile from him, escaped. The jail break was carefully timed for just before 7:00 o'clock when the guns had been taken from the guards on changing shifts. The jail breakers beat the night turnkey, Henry Purrier, after having held up two inside guards.

Urges Near East Relief

COLUMBUS, O., October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Governor Davis issued a proclamation calling upon Ohio people to aid Red Cross and the Near East Relief with contributions for Smyrna disaster sufferers.

CLEVELAND—A verdict of $404,270.18 in favor of the Main Island Creek Coal Company, Huntington, W. Va., was returned in federal court against the Cleveland and Western Coal Co. The suit resulted from the alleged breaking of a contract.

CUPID SCORNS PROMISE OF $100,000 FOR UNMARRIED LIFE; JOSEPHINE KRYL GETS MARRIED

CHICAGO, October 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Her father's promise of $100,000 if she remained unmarried until she was 30, was an inducement to Josephine Kryl, for six years, but the idea did not last long after she met Paul Taylor White, a music composer of Boston. A message signed Mrs. Paul White announced that Josephine had broken her pact with her father.

Six years ago, Josephine, then 18, was a promising violin student under the tutelage of Ysaye and her sister, Marie, then 16, was an accomplished pianist. Their father, Bohumir Kryl, himself a noted musician, had great ambitions of careers for his daughters, so great that he exacted the same promise from each—to remain single until 30—when $100,000 each would be their reward.

The rule was so rigid that no young men were to be entertained in the Kryl home.

Last week Josephine, who had signed contracts for European appearances this winter with various symphony orchestras, said she had an appointment with a dentist and left the Kryl residence. Her message from Boston was the first word her father received since.

In his will Tracey bequeathed $1,000 to his daughter Hazel Tracey of Cincinnati and the residue to my wife May Tracey.

According to the Cincinnati claimant, Tracey had no daughter named Hazel, her two children being Ethel, now dead, and Loretta, now married to a man named Meeker.

TOLEDO—Coroner Charles J. Hardy returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide" in the case of Mrs. Mabel Hardy, mother of six small children, who shot and killed her husband David, when he beat her.

This job o' keepin' the public pleased when it's tryin' to keep from puttin' up some o' the old stores that need a few bolts tightened and a coat o' paint more or less, is just as hard as puttin' up the stores. Here's some weather:

OHIO—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Cooler tonight with heavy to killing frost.

KENTUCKY—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Cooler tonight with heavy to killing frost.

The extremes in local temperature today were: High, 62; low, 31.

Some Church Members Sleeping So Soundly Only Trumpet Of Judgment Will Awaken Them

EVANGELIST BIRNEY

Dr. George Hugh Birney began his address last night in Bigelow M. E. church on "The Folks Who Sleep In Church" by telling of hearing an old owl snoring away up in a tall church steeple in a village in France during the war. "All around," he said, "were the sights and sounds of a world at war, while aloft against the stars that old owl dozed away to himself. And I saw in that incident a striking analogy to the sleeping church. If Christianity had been one tithe as much in earnest to build itself into the hearts of men down the centuries as it had been to erect monuments to itself in cathedrals of stone and brick, the world war would never have been fought.

"An awakened church is an evangelistic church. Formality is merely the shroud which makes a coffin of the altar and a corpse of the church. A formal minister, satisfied with little essays on modern socialisms, is nothing more than an animated scarecrow. This world needs the gospel of regeneration, and only an awakened ministry can preach it, and only an awakened church can live it."

Below are given some of the striking sentences with which the evangelist drove home his burning message:

"A snore is the most useless thing in the world, but it is never so useless as in the house of God."

"Some church members are sleeping so soundly that only the trumpet of judgment will awaken them."

"The church has been a great sleeper down the centuries—that's why so much of its work still remains undone."

"Sleep is caused by systemic poisoning due to fatigue, etc., the sleep of death is caused by toxic poisoning of sin."

"The devil's barage: bad literature, bad movies, jazz, destructive criticism and pleasure seeking."

"What chance has the gospel, applied to the average mind for thirty minutes, once a week, when the devil has already stuffed every brain cell with his high-powered

NEW BOSTON COUNCIL EMPHASIZES NEED OF A NEW PASSENGER AND FREIGHT DEPOT

The need of a passenger and freight depot at New Boston was discussed by the members of village council at the semi-monthly session of that body last night. A movement for a freight and passenger station was started several years ago but at that time no progress was made and the matter was dropped. The village has grown since and Councilmen feel that there is now a need for a freight and passenger station on the Norfolk and Western and Baltimore and Ohio. The committee on railroads and public buildings was instructed to confer with railroad officials relative to the establishing of a station at New Boston.

A resolution was passed authorizing the issuance of certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $23,000 to cover the property owner's share of paving Gallia street through the Peobles addition.

Members last night discussed the "smoke nuisance" in the village. Members reported that property owners were complaining about soot and carbon from the mill furnaces and a special committee consisting of Dr. H. T. McCann, W. I. Davis and Millard Dailey was appointed to call on steel plant officials to see if they could not abate the nuisance by disposing of the soot in a sanitary way.

BROTHERS HUNT; ONE ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Believe Meyers Was Seen In Lucasville

Efforts of Sheriff E. E. Riekey and Coroner J. D. Hendrickson to trace the movements of Harry Meyers, local automobile mechanic, who was found in a dying condition in his wrecked car on Scoto Trail Sunday morning and who died an hour later of his injuries, resulted in only one new fact being brought to light.

Several residents in the vicinity of Lucasville told the officials Monday that a man answering Meyers' description and who was riding in the kind of a car he was driving, had stopped in the vicinity of Lucasville Saturday night after 8:30 and inquired of the right route to Chillicothe. The different persons who claimed they talked with Meyers told officials that he appeared to be under the influence of liquor and that they advised him to turn around and drive back to Portsmouth.

No trace has been found of the more than $350 Meyers was supposed to have on his person Saturday night. Two small compartments in his machine were opened yesterday, but he did not have the money hidden in them.

Estel Stone, 11 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stone, Leitch, Ky., a few miles back of Fullerton, was brought to Hempstead hospital Tuesday noon suffering from a bad gun shot wound in his left leg, just below the hip, which he sustained Monday afternoon through the accidental discharge of a gun while out hunting with his older brother.

District Missionary Society Meets Here

With close to 100 women present, the fifty-first annual meeting of the W. man's Foreign Missionary Society, Portsmouth District, opened at Manly church this morning at nine o'clock. Considerable interest is being manifested in this session, the attendance of out of town members being exceptionally gratifying. Members of Women's Foreign Missionary Societies from Ironton, Jackson, Haverhill, Wheelersburg, Sciotoville, Ruena Vista, Old Town and other places are attending.

The morning session opened with Mrs. W. N. MacDonald of Jackson, president of the Portsmouth District, leading the devotionals. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. E. H. Blazer of Portsmouth, assistant treasurer of the District. The response was given by Mrs. Winifred Schweickart of Ironton. Mrs. Schweickart is recording secretary.

The regular business of the society included the reading of the minutes of last year's meeting, the appointment of committees and the introduction of delegates and visitors occupied the remainder of the morning. At 12:30 adjournment was taken for lunch. The majority of those attending the morning meeting enjoyed lunch in the basement of the church, where the ladies of Manly prepared a splendid menu.

Women Stage Lively Scrap On Down Town Corner, Arrested; Police News

Evelyn Whitman and Gladys Walker appeared in Municipal court Tuesday to answer to charges of engaging in a fight last night. The hearing disclosed that the trouble occurred at Seventh and Chillicothe streets and grew out of the Walker girl attempting to induce Clyde Whitman, husband of the other woman, to accompany her.

The Walker girl carried a black eye as a mark of the encounter when she appeared in court. After hearing from both sides Judge McCall continued the case for further investigation.

J. J. Pollard admitted guilt of speeding when he appeared in Municipal court Tuesday and he made such an eloquent plea in his own behalf that he was only penalized to the extent of $5 and costs by Judge McCall.

Cobb, Speaker And Ruth Will Take To Woods When Kiwanians And Exchangeites Play Ball

Great interest is being manifested in the ball game to be waged between the members of the Exchange and Kiwanis clubs on the Rosemount diamonds Thursday afternoon of this week. Incidentally the members of both organizations, while deadly rivals, so far as the athletic contest is concerned, are pleased at the opportunity of holding a joint meeting, and unless all signs fail both clubs will be represented by 100 per cent attendance. It is planned to meet at the postoffice promptly at 2 o'clock, where autos will be provided for all who care to attend the outing.

Those not there by that time should by all means come later. The game will start at 2:30.

Following the baseball game, and providing it is not necessary to depulize all the rooters as an ambulance corps, a "shore" dinner will be served on the diamonds by Caterer Jake Pfau, who promises plenty of good things to eat. The two clubs will hold separate business sessions of a few minutes' duration and then they will join hands and hearts in all sorts of stunts and pranks.

All Exchangeites and Kiwanians are cordially asked to be present—it's going to be some afternoon and evening and any fellow who even imagines he has not had his money's worth is going to be lashed to a mast and set adrift in the Scioto river.

Army's Largest Blimp

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—(By The United Press)—The dirigible, C-2, which was destroyed by fire at San Antonio, Texas, today, was the army's best and largest blimp. It was completed shortly after the army's big Italian built airship, the Roma, was destroyed by fire, and a loss of 34 lives at Norfolk this year.

The C-2 had a gas capacity of 172,000 cubic feet and was capable of making a speed of 60 miles an hour.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, October 17.—(By The Associated Press)—When the C-2 was unleashed and raised slightly above the floor of the hangar, a score of persons on board, crowds stood around the door and outside and at the first sign of danger, they scattered in all directions.

Ben Baines, a reporter for the San Antonio Light, who was a passenger, although badly injured, telephoned the first account of the accident to reach this city and was immediately taken to a hospital.

"We were being towed out," he said, "and as the nose of the ship came outside of the hangar, I noticed it sway a little with the wind and as it proceeded it careened to one side. When the ship was a little more than half way out, the winds caught it with full force and carried it over to the west side of the entrance of the hangar. The wind let the big bag go and it dropped, the bottom of the car scraping the floor. Another puff of wind caught us and I decided to jump. I saw the big ship rent and heard the hissing of gas. There must have been another rent in the bag for the force of the escaping gas threw me violently to the floor. Then came the explosion. I was knocked down by some one running. The big bag was a mass of flames. All of the others must have got away before the explosion came."

It was a Texas "norther" of brief duration that jostled the hydrogen filled bag of the "pride of the air service" and caused the rips in her sides and the explosion. By coincidence, the structure from which she was being maneuvered was the hangar built for the Roma, the former Italian dirigible which came to disaster in the East.

After the first thrashing about of the C-2, Major Straus, her commander, realized that she could not be straightened out. He had just given the order to take her back into the hangar when she ripped and exploded.

At that time she was about one-half clear of the big doors. The wind struck the bag a violent blast and a small portion of the fabric to which was attached one of the rope guides, tore out. A second rope guide snapped under the added strain and a third rope guide pulled loose.

More than fifty men were holding the dirigible, carefully directing it out of the hangar doorway under direction of the pilot, Lieutenant O. J. Anderson. Some of them were lifted from their feet as the gust of wind swung the bag upward and to one side where it struck on the concrete door frames.

At this juncture, the gas ignited, an explosion followed and within almost the twinkling of an eye, the C-2 was consumed by flames.

Technical Sergeant Harry Billies of Brooksfield was one of the outstanding heroes of the accident. His leg was broken but with disregard for his own condition, he sprang to the rescue of the occupants of the car, clambering up the concrete door frame in an effort to make certain that all the crew had escaped. When the explosion occurred, he was knocked down and fell into the wreckage below.

RUNAWAY GIRL BACK IN IRONTON

The Ironton Register says: Mabel Smith the Lawrenceburg girl who was arrested at Cincinnati, O., in company with a man named Shields, whom she charged with being a tire thief, was returned to Ironton and turned over to the probate court here by the Cincinnati authorities. The Smith girl probably will be given a hearing in probate court and placed under a sentence then returned to her home on probation. She is not generally known in Ironton. The girl is sixteen years of age. She says that Shields picked her up at a local restaurant where she was employed and that she accompanied him to Cincinnati. The man was arrested there.

Jimmie Wants Santa To Buy Coal Car

MIDDLETOWN, O., Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—James Gillespie, aged 7, does not believe there is a shortage in coal cars, at least he is of the opinion that no shortage will exist around December 25. "Jimmie" is taking no chances on being left out when the distribution is made, and, through the medium of a local newspaper today, he addressed a letter to "Santa Claus, North America," requesting that one coal car be left at his home on Christmas eve, for which, he assured "St. Nick," he would be duly thankful.

Discuss Ohio River Bridge

CINCINNATI, O., October 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Discussion of engineering problems involved in the construction of the Southern Railway bridge over the Ohio river at Cincinnati, which was opened for traffic recently, is to be made a feature of the proceedings of the thirty-second annual convention of the American Railway Bridge and Building Association which opens a four day convention here today. The bridge is of special interest to bridge builders, because it is the largest to be constructed in the North American continent this year. Among the approximately 250 delegates here for the opening session are several who attended one of the first conventions held by the association in Cincinnati, twenty years ago. C. R. Knowles, of Chicago, is president of the association, under supervision of whose delegates and companies, property worth $4,000,000.00 is represented.

Communists To Be Arraigned

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Arraignment of twenty alleged communists charged with plotting to overthrow the government of the United States by force was set forth today, the first test of Michigan's anti-Syndicalism law, which was passed as a war time measure.

Sixteen of the twenty men were arrested August 22, when officers interrupted what the government charges was the national convention of the Communist party of America, representatives in this country of the third internationale of Moscow. Three men, including W. Z. Foster of steel strike fame, later were arrested at Chicago and extradited.

Foster, Charles E. Ruthenberg of Cleveland, secretary of the Workers' party, the legal branch of the underground communist organization, William F. Kunn, Workers' party candidate for governor of New York and the six others who are not liberty under bonds arrived last night. Federal agents who watched the gathering of the defendants reported that Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City, not-

Naval Units Reach China

AMOI, CHINA, October 17.—(By The Associated Press)—The U. S. S. Blackhawk and nine destroyers of the Asiatic fleet of the United States navy, have arrived here and will spend a few days before proceeding to Hong Kong. Admiral E. A. Anderson, the new commander of the fleet, remained at Foochow aboard the flagship Huron with other ships of the Asiatic division, presumably for the purpose of observing the fighting which has been going on in the Fukien capital for several days between the insurrectionists and national forces.

EAST LIVERPOOL—Approximately 3,500 sanitary pottery workers will strike October 31, as the result of a referendum vote rejecting a 20 per cent wage cut.

STOMACH SO BAD COULDN'T SLEEP

Was All Run Down—Terribly Nervous—Is Well Now

Here is the story of a man who was always very much prejudiced against medicine, but finally after he had suffered from stomach and bowel trouble for so long a time that he could neither eat nor sleep in comfort a friend induced him to try Nerv-Worth and the first bottle gave him such wonderful relief he was anxious to tell others about it. Today he is well and hearty as ever and sleeps like a top. His name is C. W. Wilmer, and he held the position of Public Service Director in the city of Xenia, O., for four years. The word of such a man should carry great weight.

It is silly for anyone to suffer with stomach or bowel trouble, nervousness, and sleeplessness and general run down condition when they can go to the nearest drug store and buy a bottle of Nerv-Worth for a dollar and get their money right back if they are not satisfied with the results they obtain from the first bottle. It aids digestion, prevents sour stomach, gas, bloating, belching and other stomach troubles. It regulates the bowels in an easy and natural manner. It is mild yet always effective, even in chronic cases of constipation. It is so pleasant to take that children like it and take it without trouble. It is always on sale in this city at Fisher & Streich's drug store.—Advertisement.

NEIGHBORS TURN ON HOD ELLER

Auto Victims Taken To Lancaster

PIKETON, O., Oct. 17.—About one o'clock Sunday afternoon a new sedan belonging to C. O. Martens, the Dodge agent at Lancaster, Ohio, went over an embankment on the Salt Creek road about one mile above Wakefield, this county, and turned over, breaking off the left door of the machine and badly damaging the right front door.

Mr. Martens had been driving the machine and had just given the driver's seat to his wife, when the machine struck some fresh gravel on the side of the road causing it to skid and go over the embankment. Mr. Martens was badly bruised and his wife suffered a strained shoulder. The other occupants of the car were D. W. Walker, Sr., and D. W. Walker, Jr., and wife, also of Lancaster. The elder Mr. Walker escaped injury, but the younger man suffered a broken leg and his wife's left arm was broken. They had come from Lancaster Sunday morning and had driven out the Salt Creek road to cut their lunch and were returning when the accident happened.

Undertaker Thomas Hartman, of Lancaster, was called to the scene of the accident with his ambulance, and started to take the injured people to Lancaster. Everything went well until they reached Beaver bridge, about one mile south of Pike-ton, when Mr. Hartman's machine refused to run. Undertaker C. M. Freeman, of Pike-ton, was called, and the injured people were transferred to his ambulance and taken to Lancaster, arriving there about eight o'clock. Mr. Martens, accompanied by the elder Mr. Walker drove the Dodge machine to Lancaster. The younger Mr. Walker was taken to the hospital at Lancaster, where an X-Ray examination disclosed a very bad fracture of the right leg.

PUBLIC WARNED NOT TO INVEST SAVINGS IN UNKNOWN SECURITIES

LANCASTER, O., Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Unscrupulous securities salesmen are planning now to "pillage" the public of millions of dollars to be returned at the end of this year by the government in redeeming the 1918 series war savings stamps. It was asserted here today by James A. Devine, secretary of the Ohio Building League, speaking before building and loan officials from 12 central Ohio counties. He said more than 700 Ohio building and loan associations had offered their services to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in assisting the government in its efforts to prevent the money from war savings securities being wasted.

Plans were made at the meeting today whereby every building and loan association in the state will become a clearing house for information regarding investments. John W. Frugh, state superintendent of building and loan institutions, said business conditions in central Ohio are improving.

Unionists' Meeting Called For Thursday To Bring British Crisis To Head

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—The meeting of unionists called for Thursday at the Carlton club will be of great importance, as it is almost certain to bring the political crisis to a head. Until its decision whether to break up the coalition or stand by Prime Minister Lloyd George is known, the situation is not expected to develop materially in any direction.

The attendance at the meeting is to be confined to the unionist members of the house of commons and the unionist peers, who are members of the government.

While it is agreed everywhere that the meeting will lead to events of utmost consequence, opinions are much divided as to exactly what will happen on Thursday. It is admitted as just conceivable that a temporary truce may be patched up, but nobody places much faith in this outcome.

The alternative views are, first, that Mr. Austen Chamberlain's defense of the coalition and his adhesion thereto will bring him a vote of confidence by a large majority.

A second view is that the meeting will declare against adherence to the coalition, which would have been equal to a vote of no confidence in Mr. Chamberlain as unionist leader in the commons.

Speculation is busy as to what will follow the meeting's decision, whichever way it goes. Some observers suppose that if Mr. Chamberlain gets his vote of confidence, Mr. Lloyd

Removes the Roots Of Superfluous Hair

"Seeing is believing." When your own eyes see the roots come out, you know the entire hair is gone, not merely the surface hair.

Yes, it is really true that the new pelachetic method removes superfluous hair completely—roots and all—without the least injury, leaving the skin soft, smooth, hairless. You do the work in a jiffy, in your own home, without assistance. It does away with numerous expensive visits to the electrolysis expert. Does away with depilatories or shaving at frequent intervals. Nothing like it ever known before. Perfectly harmless, odorless, non-irritating. Multiplies Itself in Lather 250 Times

We asked 1,000 men what they most wanted in a shaving cream. Then we worked 18 months, making up and testing 130 formulas, to completely meet their desires.

We who did it have spent our lifetime in soap study. Some of our creations are world famous. One of them—Palmolive—is the leading toilet soap in existence.

So we claim you owe to yourself and us this pleasant test we offer.

Five reasons

Here are five reasons why you should compare this shaving cream with yours.

It multiplies itself in lather 250 times.

It softens the beard in one minute.

It maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes on the face.

The bubbles are enduring. They support the hairs for cutting while weaker bubbles break.

The after effects leave you happy, with skin smooth and pores cleaned by the palm and olive oils.

Fix Price Of Lump Coal

WASHINGTON.—Federal Fuel Distributor Spens, through an agreement with bituminous operators of the "Smokeless" field of West Virginia, has fixed a maximum price of $6 per ton at the mine for all lump coal.

A straw pointing to the direction of the political wind was the sharp rise in the London insurance market yesterday to cover the risk of a general election before the end of the year. Last week the odds were 2 to 1 against this contingency but yesterday they were 2 to 1 in his favor.

Democratic Primary In Georgia

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—Under cloudy skies and with rain falling in several sections of the state, Georgians voted today in a special Democratic primary to nominate a successor to the late United States Senator Thomas E. Watson.

Each of the four candidates, Governor Thomas W. Hardwick, Senator Wright, John R. Cooper, and Walter F. George—made last minute claims of the support of the "Loyal Fifty Thousand Followers of Watson" and expressed confidence of being nominated.

All four of the candidates expressed themselves as being opposed to the league of nations or any similar foreign alliance.

Mrs. Wm. H. Felton, the first woman United States senator, will end her term after the general election November 7. She publicly endorsed the candidacy of Governor Hardwick who appointed her following the death of Senator Watson to serve until a successor could be elected.

How Is The Tax Money Of Scioto County Spent?

Times Now Publishing The Pay-Out Vouchers For Period Of Month

The Times today presents the second installment of vouchers paid out by Scioto county during the month of September, for many and varied purposes. The careful reading by taxpayers is again urged and if any one has any comments or can throw any light on whether or not the county is getting its money's worth, they are invited to write to the Editor of The Times. Their names will not be published.

The money spent on "road repair work" it should be explained does not include what was spent on State Inter-county or other roads taken over by the state. The state pays for its own roads out of the special state tax fund for that purpose. The "road repair" allotted to in these vouchers being published is that done on side roads. The Times has been investigating all summer and its comments will come later.

Here is the second installment running from voucher No. 423 to 438 inclusive:

Victims Of Mt. Joy Shooting May Recover; Face Charge Of Shooting With Intent To Kill

At Hempstead hospital Tuesday it was stated that the condition of Bud Daniels and James Compton, Mt. Joy merchants who shot each other twice Sunday had spent a restful night and their condition today was more favorable. Neither has developed pneumonia, which has been feared by the attending physicians.

It was stated Tuesday that should both men recover they will face charges of shooting with intent to kill as a result of the serious shooting affray Sunday. It was caused by Daniels' miss straying onto the property of Compton, had blood, having existed between the two men for some time.

Officials are investigating a statement one of the victims made Monday, which was to the effect that if they had had knives they would have made use of them after the bullets in the chamber of Compton's gun had been exhausted.

Better Than Calomel

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "biliousness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy," "stuffed" or "heavy." They "clear" the brain and "perk up" the spirits. Use and see.—Advertisement.

An unusually pleasant social meeting of the Ladies' Aid of All Saints Church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Taylor, corner of Third and Waller streets. Thirty members enjoyed the afternoon, social chat and various diversions making the afternoon pass only too swiftly.

Miss Josephine Kinney, who recently returned from an extended stay in California, and Mrs. Elizabeth Griffiths, who has returned from a six months' visit in Detroit, and other cities, were welcomed back by the Aid.

Mrs. Taylor was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Richard Taylor, in serving delicious refreshments of "ice cream cake," dairy little cakes and coffee, at the close of the afternoon.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, Order of Railway Conductors will meet in regular session tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock in Brady's Hall.

Mrs. Edward Sly of Scioto Trail who recently underwent a serious operation in Hempstead Hospital, is able to be out again.

Sore Feet Nearly Drove Her Crazy

"For many years the callouses on my feet, the burning, and corns between my toes nearly drove me crazy," says Mrs. Anna Beckman. "I tried all kinds of things without relief. Hearing about the quick relief and wonderful results obtained by dancers and athletes who used Gypso Foot Relief, my husband brought me a box. I used it a few times as directed, and in my surprise, the burning and soreness stopped, and the callouses just peeled off in my fingers, leaving the skin smooth. The soft grain between my toes seemed to fade away, and now I feel as if I had a pair of new feet. Before I used Gypso Foot Relief, my feet must have been constantly swollen, for now I can easily wear shoes a size smaller, and with perfect comfort. Get a box at your drugist today—small cost—successful results guaranteed in every case or money back."

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—Miss Dorothy Dalton, the actress famous the world over for her beautiful complexion, says: "Any girl or woman can have a beautiful rosy-white complexion and clear, smooth skin by using a skin lotion which will follow my advice and use Derwillo in combination with a skin cold cream. Both are simple but very effective toilet preparations. I use Derwillo for the skin and Derwillo for the skin."

It is easy to apply, absolutely harmless, and has a marvelous effect upon the skin. One application proves it. Try this combination today on your face, neck, hands and arms, and you will be delightfully surprised. Derwillo comes in three shades: flesh, white and brunette. For sale at the toilet counters of all department stores and druggists, including Flood & Blake and Fisher & Stretch.—Advertisement.

Salesman Arrested

CLEVELAND, O., October 17.—(By The Associated Press)—The arrest today of Joseph Brown, salesman, by federal officers acting on a warrant from special agents investigating the alleged million dollar Aurbach-Alcohol conspiracy case made the seventeenth person taken into custody in connection with the investigation. Officials alleged that those under arrest entered a conspiracy to withdraw alcohol for use in making hair tonic, but later sold it for beverage purposes.

Miss Dolly Wise

See in here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

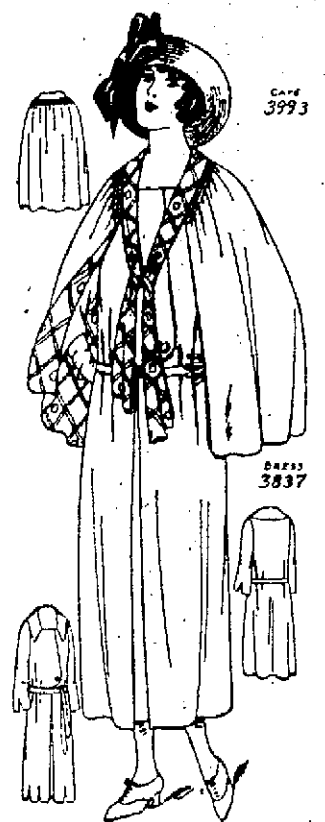

Dear Dolly—Is it proper now to acknowledge gifts or has that custom gone out of style along with various other customs? I notice quite a number of brides have failed to send out acknowledgments, and I was just wondering if they did not know any better or if they were just trying to start something new.

WANT TO KNOW
So far as I know it is still customary to acknowledge gifts. When the time comes, that brides refuse to acknowledge wedding presents, I think it about time for the people to quit giving them.

Dear Dolly—Would you please tell as bad as they think I am, but I have decided that if it will keep peace in the family I will join the navy. Please tell me a little about it. Dolly, where can I join and where will they send me?

WORRIED BOY.
I feel sorry for boys whose parents do not understand them, and for parents who do not understand their boys. You seem to know what your parents expect of you, and it is too bad that you cannot convince them that you are not as bad as they think you are and with a little co-operation on their part, you will turn out all right. However, if you are still in the notion of joining the navy, here are a few things that will help you out: Applicants, in order to be acceptable, must be over 16 years of age and be physically qualified, as specified by Navy standards. They also must present birth, or baptismal certificates, and in lieu thereof, age certificate blanks witnessed by responsible parties. Recruits from this district are sent to the Navy Training Station at Hampton Roads, Virginia. The course is three months, after which they are allowed furloughs to visit their home, prior to being distributed to the battleship fleet or the various trade schools maintained by the Navy. The Navy, the so-called "School of the Nation," offers splendid opportunities for a young man, and is well worth looking into by young men choosing a career. You can enlist in the Naval Recruiting Station at Ashland, Ky. From there you will be sent to Cincinnati for final acceptance, and later to Hampton Roads.

Dear Dolly—Looking over the city of Portsmouth the writer notices several elm trees dead which the property owner or the Street R. R. and Light Co. ought to have removed as they are dangerous to the electric wires and pedestrians as some limbs are dead. On Third street between Gay and Bond there are five trees dead and already part of the limbs have fallen off. AN OBSERVER.

I imagine they will cut 'em down when they read this letter and "discover" they are passing away.

BLUE EYES—Call me up and I will tell you what you want.

THANK YOU—There is not much difference between the two leaguers, but judging from the results of the world's series, it looks like the National league is the best. Ford's output varies, as they have not been working full time in all departments, and they are handicapped from time to time on account of the coal shortage and various other things. Oxfords will be worn all winter, by some men, but shoes will also be good.

Dear Dolly—I would like to ask how old a boy has to be before he can join the navy with the consent of his parents. I am a boy of 16 and my parents and friends do not seem to think that I will ever amount to anything, so I thought if I joined the navy I could go away and not bother them any more. They tell me that I am a constant worry to them. They are afraid I am going to kill a man every time I step outside of the house. I'm not killing a man I am going to jump in the river and get drowned. I am not half as bad as they think I am, but I have decided that if it will keep peace in the family I will join the navy. Please tell me a little about it. Dolly, where can I join and where will they send me?

POWELLVILLE READER.
The funny noise you hear is the chirping of the cricket. Instead of chirping with its mouth like the rest of us, the cricket rubs the flies on its legs, the cricket rubs the flies on the top of its wing together. The next time you hear one make a noise under your house, or in the top of a tree, why don't you crawl under, or climb up and watch how they do it? It's lots of fun.

Miss Gladys Graham, Eighth street, extended the hospitality of her home to members of the D. C. K. Club for their regular meeting last night. Cards, music and dancing provided the diversions of the evening, and at a late hour an appetizing salad course was served by the hostess.

Those enjoying the evening were: Misses Agnes Franz, Margaret Franz, Anna Goodman, Selena Goodman, Katherine Miller, Clara Gengenbacher, Genevieve Thomas, Gertrude Kirby, Hilda Montavon, Dorothy Butler, Elizabeth Orlett, Virginia McMahon, Mrs. A. A. Sommer and Mrs. Fred Gerkens.

James H. Hooper and family, and Miss Rosalie Hooper motored to Peabody Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hooper. They were accompanied home by Mrs. T. A. Hooper who will visit relatives here for the week.

Mrs. Norman McNeegen and Mrs. Loren Cunningham have issued invitations for an informal afternoon party at the home of Mrs. McNeegen, 628 Fifth street, Thursday of this week, for the pleasure of Mrs. Roy Jewett (Mildred Prichard) a bride of the early part of the month.

Miss Mildred Williamson, Fourth street, has returned from a short visit with relatives in Ironton and Greenup, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Peed (Antoinette Cline) returned Monday afternoon from a short honeymoon trip which they spent with relatives in Cincinnati. They are now receiving their friends at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Cline, 1709 Robinson avenue. During their absence Mrs. Cline was the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert Rockhold, of Gallia avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Switalski and small son and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Layton and baby motored to Wellston Sunday and spent the day with Professor and Mrs. J. W. Kissling.

Miss Maxine Foster of Friendship will entertain a number of friends with a winter party to be held this evening at the Old Road Camp near Friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hackworth returned to their home in Charters, Ky., Monday afternoon, after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Peed of 732 Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Peed (Antoinette Cline) of 1709 Robinson avenue, who were married Saturday at high noon, were given an old-fashioned belling last night by the children of their neighborhood.

The following cards have been received here by friends of the bride:
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Deland announce the marriage of their cousin

Mrs. Anna L. Bowers to

Mr. Aaron W. Look on Saturday the seventh day of October one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two Urbana, Illinois.

At Home
After November first
At 1201 State Street,
Larned-Kansas.

The above announcement will be of interest to the members of the Franklin Avenue M. E. church, as Mrs. Look has been a National Worker of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and was in the city three years ago, when she organized the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Franklin Avenue church. She has been working in the Central German Conference and has organized every auxiliary in the conference, which earned for her the title of the "mother of the Central German Conference."

The Misses Flora and Mary Hewitt, Grace Culbertson and Helen Smith have returned from a short motor trip to Ashland and Huntington.

Mrs. O. J. Russell, president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Bigelow church, which recently pledged itself to look after the family of a worthy minister living at Chandler, N. C., is making a plea to the members for a donation to buy a suit of clothes for one of the sons in the family, who is 18 years of age. Anyone wishing to donate money for this boy may send it to Mrs. Russell's home, 1559 Fourth street. The boy's chest measure is 35 inches.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Farrar and Mr. and Mrs. William Elmslie have returned to their home in Wellston, after a short visit with friends in this city.

The rummage sale scheduled for last Friday by the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Bigelow church, was postponed on account of the evangelistic meetings being held there. The sale will probably be held the first week in November, the exact date to be announced later.

MARRIAGE

A LA MODE

THE number of attendants a bride selects to be members of the wedding party has become much smaller than formerly, even at the most formal weddings.

The impressive escort for the bride originates in England, where at one time it indicated the financial rating of the bride's family.

There have been as many as a hundred bridesmaids at old English ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Magnet, Huntington, West Va., motored here and were the week-end guests of relatives and friends.

Mrs. B. H. Cole of Bellefontaine, Ohio; Mrs. J. M. Lykens and two sons, Maurice and Donald of Sabina, Ohio, and Mrs. John Copas of Cleveland, are visiting their relatives. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Copas of 808 Gay street.

Miss Judith Addis has returned to her home in Ironton after a week-end visit with her niece, Mrs. William Corbin of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Moulton, who were recently married in Minneapolis, Minn., are now pleasantly located in their new home, 1908 Hutchins street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lanier of Franklin avenue and sister, Miss Jeanette Lerch, have returned from a motor trip to Brown county, where they visited the former's daughters, Jane and Ruth, who are attending school at the Ursuline Academy there.

Mrs. Edward McNamara and son, R. J. McNamara of 642 Ninth street, have returned from Cleveland, where they went to attend the wedding of the former's son, Attorney Edward McNamara, who was married in that city Saturday evening to Miss Shyl Davis, daughter of Mrs. Isadore M. Davis of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed in the parsonage of St. Rose's Catholic church at six o'clock by Rev. Father Stewart, and was followed by a four course wedding dinner served at the New Amsterdam Hotel to the members of the bridal party, relatives and a few college friends of the groom. The attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Janet Davis of Washington, D. C., and Mr. R. J. McNamara of this city, brother of the groom.

The bride looked unusually sweet and attractive in her wedding gown of black tulle with picture hat of black. Her bridal bouquet was a corsage of bride's roses.

The charming young maid was groomed in a pretty blue crepe dress and wore a corsage of pink sweet-heart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. McNamara will make their future home in Cleveland, where Mr. McNamara has been located since graduating from the law department of the Georgetown University.

Show Them

What this new way does

No mother wants children to suffer what she may have suffered from her teeth.

Then teach them the new way of teeth cleaning. Show the prettier teeth it brings, the whiter, safer teeth. Or let them make this test, and see and feel the benefits themselves.

Must fight film

Dingy teeth and most tooth troubles are now traced to film. One must fight to avoid them.

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays. Stains discolor it, then it forms dingy coats. Tartar is based on film.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

No ordinary tooth paste effectively combats film. So, under old methods, very few escaped tooth troubles. Beautiful teeth were less often seen than today.

Two ways found

Then dental science, after long research, found two ways to fight film. One acts to curdle it, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then dentists the world over began to advise their use.

A new-type tooth paste was created, based on modern research. The name is Pepsodent. Those two great film combatants are embodied in it for daily application.

Its new effects

Pepsodent brings other effects which research proved essential. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to constantly neutralize the acids which cause decay.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits on teeth which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Those are Nature's great tooth-protecting agents. Each use of Pepsodent gives them manifold effect.

For dainty people

Pepsodent is now used by millions the world over. Careful people of some fifty nations have adopted it, largely by dental advice. Dainty people—those who care for whiter, cleaner teeth—will never go without it.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

One week will give you a new conception of what clean teeth mean. It will point the way to a new dental era, both for you and yours. Cut out the coupon now.

Mother Why Don't You Take The Newer Form of Iron?

And Be Strong and Well and Have Nice Rosy Cheeks Instead of Being Nervous and Irritable All The Time and Looking So Haggard and Old?—The Doctor Gave Some To Susie Smith's Mother and She Was Worse Off Than You Are and Now She Looks Just Fine

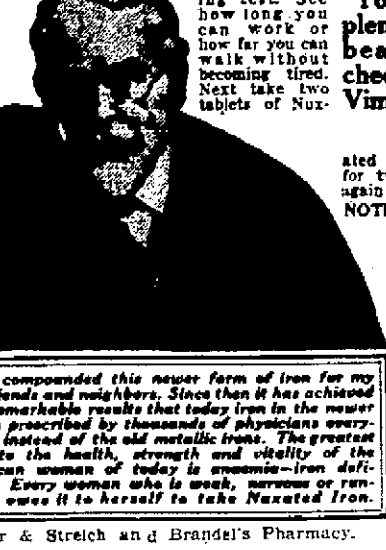

THE CHILD'S APPEAL

"There can be no Beautiful, Healthy, Rosy-Cheeked women without iron."

J. F. SULLIVAN, M.D.

"Nine out of every ten women who are weak, sickly, nervous and run-down, could increase their health, strength and energy, and feel and look young again, by taking a few tablets of Nuxated Iron in ten days' time. If they would only get a little more iron in their blood, they would feel better, and their health would improve. The doctor who has prescribed this for so many women, says: 'The most astounding thing in the practice of medicine is to see how many people suffer from iron deficiency, and do not know it. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without iron, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you the proper amount of good. You do not get the strength out of it and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly.'"

"You can tell the women with plenty of iron in their blood—beautiful, healthy, rosy-cheeked women full of life, vim and vitality."

EMIL SAUER, M.D.

ated iron three times a day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. NOTE—This newer form of iron, known as Nuxated Iron, which is recommended by Dr. Sullivan, Dr. Sauer, and other physicians, is not a secret remedy but one which is well-known to druggists everywhere. For the protection of physicians and the public against inferior substitutes Nuxated Iron is put in tablet form only, with the letters N. I. on every tablet and the words 'Nuxated Iron' stamped into each bottle. The publishers of American newspapers who guarantee that advertisements are able to assure you that the manufacturers of Nuxated Iron are so sure that they will refer to the purchase price to any purchaser merely on his own statement that he is not satisfied with the words 'Nuxated Iron' stamped into each bottle. Sold by all good druggists, including Stewart's Cut Rate, Flood & Blake, Fisher & Stretch and Brand's Pharmacy.

AMENDMENT SEEKS TO PROTECT BOOTLEGGERS

JUDGE A. Z. BLAIR

Editor of Portsmouth Daily Times:—Some days ago I noticed an Editorial in your paper in reference to the proposed "Wet Amendment," to the Constitution of the State to be voted on this Fall, which was most timely. Your editorial went to the very marrow of the proposition submitted to the people of this State. That the proposed amendment nullifies the Constitution and laws of the United States.

At the close of the Civil War, it was generally supposed by the people of this country that the doctrine of nullification had forever been silenced by the result of this war, but it seems that there are those in this State who are willing that the State of Ohio shall espouse the cause of nullification.

Permit me to call your attention to the objectionable features of this amendment. Every person who votes "Yes" on this amendment casts a ballot in favor of each and all of the following propositions, to wit:

First. To nullify the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Second. To nullify the laws of Ohio, regulating and prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor to minors, intoxicated persons or persons in the habit of becoming intoxicated.

Third. To legalize the sale of liquors that are intoxicating to minors, persons that are intoxicated, or in the habit of becoming intoxicated on Sunday and every other day of the week in every Township, Village and City in the State.

Fourth. To tie the hands of the Legislature, the Council of the Villages and Cities and the people themselves of the State of Ohio from passing any law, laws or ordinances regulating or prohibiting the traffic in intoxicating liquors that would affect or apply to the manufacture and sale of liquors containing 3.44 percent or less alcohol by volume.

Fifth. To write a lie in the Constitution of the State of Ohio.

Sixth. To foster, protect and aid moonshiners and bootleggers by (a) legalizing the possession of moonshine and bootleg whiskey in the home, (b) by protecting bootleggers and moonshiners in the manufacture and transportation of moonshine and bootleg whiskey from search and seizure until a Search Warrant can be obtained.

The proposed amendment is in the words and figures following to wit: "Be it resolved by the People of the State of Ohio:

"No beverage containing two and three-quarters or less per cent of alcohol by weight shall be deemed an intoxicating liquor, and the manufacture and sale of such beverages for consumption in homes and places of abode shall be lawful. No beverage containing more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume may be sold to be drunk on the premises where sold.

Possession of intoxicating liquors in the home or residence of any person for his or her personal use, or for the use of his or her family or his or her guests when not intended for sale or other illegal purpose, shall not be unlawful.

No search or attempt to search the person or property of any person without previously securing a search warrant shall be authorized in the enforcement of all laws pertaining to the prohibition of intoxicating liquor."

You will notice that no word is said in it about either wine or beer, but it refers to beverage, which covers any and all beverages and provides that beverages containing two and three-quarters or less per cent of alcohol by weight (which is 3.44 per cent by volume) shall not be deemed an intoxicating liquor.

The Constitution and laws of the United States provide that beverages containing one-half percent or more of alcohol shall be construed to be intoxicating liquors, so that the proposed amendment undertakes to nullify the Constitution and laws of the United States. But it goes further. It says that such beverages shall not be deemed intoxicating liquor, thus eliminating such beverage from the operation of all laws of the State of Ohio prohibiting or regulating intoxicating liquors including the law prohibiting the sale furnishing or giving away of intoxicating liquors to minors, intoxicated persons or persons in the habit of becoming intoxicated. If this amendment be adopted, it will then be lawful so far as the laws of this State are concerned, to furnish or give beverages containing 3.44 percent or less of alcohol by volume to any child or drunken person or persons in the habit of becoming intoxicated on Sunday or any day of the week or at any place in the State. No local option law, could protect any Township, Village or Municipality from the sale of such beverage. It could be sold anywhere and everywhere. In Shoe Shine Parlors, Pool Rooms, Cigar Stands, Drug Stores, Grocery Stores, from Peddling Wagons and on the Streets or Public Highways with impunity, so far as the laws of this State are concerned.

Nay more, the Legislature and the Councils of the Municipalities, indeed the people of the State, would all be powerless to enact a law regulating or prohibiting the traffic in intoxicating liquors which would apply to or affect the sale of such beverage. It would write a lie in the Constitution of this State.

It has been demonstrated in the past that ordinary beer containing 3.44 percent of alcohol will and does intoxicate, yet this Amendment seeks, if adopted, will, exclude such beverages from all laws of the State applying to intoxicating liquors.

But the Amendment does not stop with undertaking to provide for light wines and beer as generally stated in the newspapers, but applies to all beverages, so that if adopted, the sale of pop or any other beverage with the alcoholic contents indicated in the amendment would be perfectly legal, so far as the laws of this State are concerned.

The amendment seeks to protect the bootleggers, The Constitution and laws of the United States and of the State of Ohio now provide that a person may keep in his own home intoxicating liquors lawfully obtained for the purpose of his own private use or the use of his bona fide guests, but this amendment seeks to protect liquor in the home without regard to how they are obtained, thus protecting the moonshiner who manufactures it in his home, or the purchaser of such liquor from a bootlegger.

There can evidently be but one purpose to this provision of the amendment and that is to protect the moonshiner and bootlegger in using his home as a store room for his moonshine and bootleg liquor.

It does not stop here, however, but goes further and protects him in the manufacture and transportation of such liquor by preventing the officers of the law from searching his premises or vehicle without a search warrant, thus giving him time to either destroy or get away with his liquor before he can be apprehended by the officers of the law. If this amendment be adopted then it will be possible, so far as the laws of the State are concerned, for persons to drive along the public highways, through the Country and upon the Streets, of our Cities and transport intoxicating liquor by trucks, automobiles and other vehicles with impunity and our sheriffs, constables and policemen dare not interfere until they have taken time to go to some Magistrate and procure a search warrant, thus giving the bootlegger time to get away with his liquor.

A careful reading of the provision shows that the drafters of this amendment not only intended to nullify the Constitution, but to make it possible so far as the laws of Ohio are concerned to sell the beverage therein designated to the children of the State in all parts of the State, in the rural districts, as well as the cities, and to prevent any interference by laws enacted either by the Legislature or the people themselves, and to aid bootleggers and moonshiners in the manufacture, transportation and sale of all intoxicating liquors.

You were therefore quite right in your editorial on this, the most iniquitous proposition that has ever been submitted to any civilized people at any time. I am,

Respectfully,

ALBION Z. BLAIR.

Fire Visits Ironton Brick Plant

IRONTON, Oct. 17.—Fire, recently, did damage to the extent of about $25,000 at the plant of the Ohio Refractories Co., located on the river bank near the D. T. & I. round house. Ligners arrived on the scene early, according to Fire Chief Frank Smith, and the blaze could have been extinguished with chemicals, but the department was blocked by several switches filled with cars, and could not get to the burning buildings.

The Ohio Refractories Co. recently took over the old brick plant of the Ironton Fire Brick Co. and spent many thousands of dollars in improvements. The concern is composed mostly of Portsmouth capital, and Maurice K. Hitchcock is the manager. The plant employed about 80 men.

It was learned later that a freight train on the N. & W. had filled the switches with cars about 4 a. m. and that the yard engine was out the crossings before 6 o'clock.

Pomerene Praises Trainmen's Head For Recent Statement

CANTON, O., Oct. 17.—United States Senator Pomerene visited his home county yesterday, making a whirlwind tour, in which he made speeches in a dozen towns. Last night he addressed a Democratic rally here. He devoted his addresses principally to the tariff and the labor situation and upheld the government in the position it took in the recent shopmen's strike.

"No sane government could stand by and do nothing when millions of people in the country are suffering for want of food, clothing and coal," Senator Pomerene declared. "A tie-up of interstate traffic, whether brought on by the railroad management or the men is bound to do that very thing.

"Congress in trying to meet the situation fairly, created the Labor Board. In the events which followed its establishment and which culminated in the strike of shopmen the railway executives were the first offenders. By their 'farming out' policy they sought a means to get around the labor board."

Mr. Pomerene said the reduction awarded the railroad men by the Labor Board was too severe, "but the course they should have taken was to have filed an application for a rehearing with the Board."

"I am in complete harmony with Wm. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, in the belief that no class or faction should so tie up traffic that the innocent, who are always in the majority would suffer," Senator Pomerene told his audience at Brewster.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Carl Blankenmeyer of the Grimes Apartments will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude West, of Wooster Ohio.

The Teachers' Club held its first meeting of the school year Monday afternoon at the High School building with Miss Alice Maltz, the new president, presiding.

Miss Marie Little was elected secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Mavis Bridges.

Part of the business of the afternoon was the appointment of committees for the year. The executive committee consists of the Misses Grace Fr. Gladys Wittenburg, Ruth Fowler, Mrs. Iza Dressler and Mr. Reed.

The social committee consists of Misses Mildred Nef, Ruby Cryer, Grace Mooney, Emma Mills, Lorena Marr and Alfarretta Scott.

Miss Ida Davis gave to the club members information gained from "Better Schools Bulletin" on the renewal of teachers' certificates.

A very interesting and instructive talk was given by Mr. William Hazelbeck on "Thrift."

Miss Clara Simpson, chairman of the Teachers' Library Committee reported that the Teachers' Library is now ready for use and that quite a number of very helpful books to aid teachers in their work were in the shelves.

The next meeting of the Club will be December 11th.

The Order of the Eastern Star will hold an important business meeting this evening at the Masonic Temple. Every member is urged to be present at 7:30 p. m.

After the session is completed the remainder of the evening will be spent enjoyably in dancing and other diversions with the Peerless Strollers furnishing the music. Refreshments will also be served.

Mrs. Clarence Earlich will entertain the members of the Minerva Kensington Club tomorrow afternoon at her home, 1225 Franklin avenue.

Group 11 of Trinity Ladies' Aid Society will meet tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Agnes McCall, 1329 Seventeenth street. The assistant hostess will be Mrs. Frank Hawkins. The winter's work will be planned at this meeting and all members are urged to be present.

Norfolk and Western section foremen from three divisions were in the city Monday on their annual track inspection.

The foremen from the Cincinnati division traveling in a special train inspected the Scioto Division between Kenova and Waverly and the men from the Columbus division passed over the Big Sandy division while the foremen from the latter district journeyed over the "Old Line."

The inspection was completed yesterday except the Cincinnati division which was toured by the foremen from the Big Sandy region Tuesday.

PASSING HAT FOR NEW UNIES

Ironton high school's football warriors are soon to have new uniforms. That is a public spirited subscription list has been started whereby it is hoped enough money will be donated with which to buy uniforms. They will probably arrive for the Thanksgiving Day game at least.

The team certainly will get their new "unies" when they need them most, for the visitors had all colors of uniforms on Saturday. The first sum to go in wore a red jersey the same color as the E. H. S. players.

When Coach Davies was asked to have the player change his jersey he told officials his team did not have any more black jerseys but six subs on the Ironton bench wore black ones.

Milty walked every inch of the way to Florida two years ago and is now driving over the same route.

McAdoo Scores Tariff Bill; Asks Election Of Democratic Congress

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 17.—In an address, in the Denver Municipal auditorium yesterday afternoon W. G. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury and War Time Director of the Railway Administration, assailed the Harding policy of deflation and the Republican tariff bill and concluded with an appeal for the election of a Democratic Congress and for the election of the Democratic tickets in all states.

"The Republicans have passed the most extortionate and indefensible tariff bill ever enacted in our history," Mr. McAdoo said. "The Payne Aldrich bill which destroyed Mr. Taft politically and brought the Republicans to defeat in 1912, is outclassed by the Fordney-McCumber bill.

"It is estimated the cost of living to American people will be increased by the Fordney-McCumber bill $4,000,000,000 per annum of which only $400,000,000 will go into the American treasury. The remaining $3,600,000,000 will be collected by monopolies, trusts and greedy combinations for special profit of these favored interests."

Discussing the Harding policy of deflation Mr. McAdoo declared that "no more fatuous policy was ever pursued in American history than this attack by one great political party upon prosperity."

"It was treated as though it were a national evil instead of a national blessing," he said.

When asked if he is a candidate for president, Mr. McAdoo said, "Nothing appeals to me less than a presidential suit and a political suit."

Get Your "Sugar Plums" at Anderson's Department Managers' Sale

The "Sugar Plum" plan as introduced in our center and north aisles of our main floor for this Department Managers' Sale has already proven its worth and popularity. This new plan for special sales avoids disappointment which is all too common at sales, because the merchandise you wish to buy does not happen to be reduced. By this new plan known as the "Sugar Plum" plan, practically everything you buy in the aisles mentioned above is reduced in price. The only stipulation is that your purchase amounts to $5 or more and that is easy in a large department like this where underwear, hosiery, gloves, umbrellas, sheets, muslins, white goods, laces, stationery, candies, toilet goods, and other lines are sold.

Remember this "Sugar Plum" plan does not apply to other departments but to the space on the first floor, which you will note upon your arrival at the store is enclosed by the big red festoon.

Here Are The "Sugar Plums"

By purchasing $5 or more in this department you are entitled to any of the following items at the prices quoted. They are ridiculously low, we know, but it's your saving when your purchase amounts to $5 or more.

How A Little French Girl Caused You To Save $1.02

We have a big sale of imported French kid gloves in all the popular colors, all new stock and worth $2.75 and $3 a pair and all going at the special price of $1.98.

The reason we are able to sell these gloves at so low a figure is because a little French girl in the factory in France made a mistake in putting on glove clasps. Instead of the clasp she should have used, she put on some that had the letters, A. B. C. on them and since A. B. C. happens to be the initials of Anderson Bros. Co., we bought the entire lot at a sacrifice in price. We can't help it that the little French girl lost her job and neither can you, but since we are able to purchase the gloves way under price you might as well get in on the saving.

These gloves are all high grade French Kid, new stock, and brought in before the tariff, which went into effect a few days ago. It is therefore an exceptional glove sale and one that cannot be repeated soon. Special price $1.98.

Found Dead In Bath Tub

WELLSTON, Oct. 17—Kent Murphy, 24 single, one of the best known men of this section late Sunday morning was found dead in a bath room at a residence at Iroquois. The young man was employed as a furnace man for a pipeless furnace company and his employer with whom he boarded had rented a residence, but had not yet moved into same.

Along about nine o'clock Sunday morning young Murphy went to the house to take a bath. As he did not return, his employer supposed he had gone to Huntington and was not in any way alarmed by his absence. Going to the residence late in the day to plan out the moving of his household effects into same, and entering the bath room he was astonished by finding Murphy dead in the bath tub and the gas turned on full force, showing that the young man had died from asphyxiation. A physician was summoned and it was found that the young man had been dead several hours.

POPE BOYS ARE INJURED

WELLSTON, Oct. 17—Herschel Pope, one of the crack players of the Wellston football team, was injured in the game at Milton Park Sunday. In one of the scrimmages Pope caught it in the back and suffered an injury that will probably lay him up for a few days.

It is said that the injury to young Pope was caused by the rough playing of one of the visitors, who should have been put out of the game. It seems that the game was after the Pops all on the same day, for news comes from Athens today that Virgil Pope, who is also a fine footballist, suffered a bad eye injury while playing in a game at that place.

OBITUARY

J. C. Sears

With his grave blanked high with beautiful flowers—love tokens from those who knew him best, J. C. Sears, who passed away at his home, 1024 Grant street, Friday evening, is sleeping the last sleep in Greenlawn cemetery. Just a stone's throw from his home that he loved so well.

The funeral services over this good and true man were held from his late home on Monday afternoon at four o'clock, and the large crowd that attended attested the esteem in which he was held by the people of Portsmouth. His pastor, Rev. Charles E. Chandler of Bigelow Methodist Church, paid a high tribute to the life and character of Mr. Sears, who, while quiet of demeanor, and who loved his church and home above all else, nevertheless always found time to mingle with his friends and particularly to carry cheer to the homes of those who were shut-in because of illness. In fact it was characteristic of the life of Mr. Sears to visit those he loved. He and his good wife ever found time to mingle among those whose companionship they cherished. And while his home has been broken, there are many, many other homes that will miss his cheering face and his optimistic advice.

Rev. Chandler touched upon the beautiful home life of the deceased for he was ever solicitous as to the comfort and health of his help-mates, whose devotion was ideally beautiful.

While a home man, nevertheless Mr. Sears was also devoted to his church. He had been a member of Bigelow Church for many years and his pew was always filled when he was in the city. He was out of the city a great deal of the time, particularly while representing the Selby Shoe Company on the road. Among his business associates in other states he will also be missed, for regardless of his state of health, it is said he carried cheer into every store he visited and his semi-yearly visits were looked forward to with interest.

Since giving up his position two years ago, Mr. Sears gave particular attention to his health. He seemed to realize that he was battling against great odds, but he kept this to himself and it was never manifest to his friends. He had a lot to live for and he wanted to live to enjoy the companionship of his wife and friends. Though he was called away in the prime of life he was ready to go—was not afraid.

Mr. Sears had lived in Portsmouth for more than a quarter of a century. The son of a minister, he had been trained in the way he should go and when he grew to manhood, he never deviated from the path of duty. A plain, outspoken man, he detested the gaudy and tawdry things of life and always lived out in the open of God's sunshine.

Coming to Portsmouth a young man, Mr. Sears entered the employ of the Selby Shoe Company and was so devoted to his duty that it was not long until he was placed in charge of the order department, and later was promoted to the position of a salesman. He made good from his first order and was counted as one of the most successful salesmen in the employ of the big concern.

Mr. Sears was a friend to all who knew him, and was a special favorite with the little kiddies who lived near his home. It was no uncommon sight to see him on his porch surrounded by a dozen little children. He never failed to have some sweet meats handy for the little boys and girls, and romped with them upon his well-kept lawn like a school boy. Not only will he be missed by the little folks but by all who knew him. Clean of life and big of heart, he had lived as all men should, and while he was cut down just as he had reached the prime of life, he had scattered joy and sunshine along the path of his fellow man in great abundance and will be all the better prepared to enjoy the reward that is promised to those who are faithful. He was a man of faith and works and his memory will ever be cherished by those who were fortunate enough to regard themselves as his friends.

Rev. George W. Vance

Rev. George W. Vance was born in Jackson, July 3, 1853, and departed this life at Galford, O., October 15, 1922, aged 69 years, three months and 12 days.

He was united in marriage many years ago to Miss Louise Gey, who died November 17, 1908. Four children were born of this union, three of which survive their father, Sergeant P. A. Vance, Fort Wadsworth, N. Y.; Mrs. Myrtle Havens, Elkton, O.; and George D. Vance, at home; and C. A. Vance, deceased.

Rev. Vance was married in 1920 to Mrs. Mary Dowdler, who also survives. A sister, Mrs. Sarah Fagans, 603 Eighth street, Portsmouth, also survives.

The funeral will be held from the residence at Galford Wednesday morning, with interment in Galford cemetery.

Mrs. Fagans has gone to Galford to attend the funeral of her brother.

Ramey Recovering

Howard Ramey, 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ramey, 2509 Eighth street, is rapidly recovering from the effects of a surgical operation for appendicitis which he underwent at Hempstead hospital a few days ago.

BRAINS BIG FACTOR ON THE GRIDIRON; BRAUN NO LONGER ESSENTIAL, SAYS BO McMILLIN

Brute Strength Is Relegated

BY "BO" McMILLIN

All-American Quarterback
WHAT part does brute strength play in modern football?

Is brain and speed more essential than brawn in the open play that now features the grid game?

When a coach looks over his available material what style player has the most appeal?

The good old game of football has changed much in the last 10 years. The successful coach must adapt himself to existing conditions. A coaching system that was successful 10 years back would be an absolute failure today.

Brawn Not Essential
There was a time when football games were won by brute strength and awkwardness, but today we can't find a place on a successful team for the man with "a million-dollar body and a ten-cent head."

My experience has proved conclusively to me that this scientific game of football is still in the embryonic stage, therefore it is imperative that we choose the most active and intelligent men for our eleven.

Each season we are introducing new modes of attack and our field general is constantly changing his defense in order to successfully cope with these strong offensive experiments.

Must Shift Styles
The general conception of a quarterback is one who directs the attack, but today both the defense and offense is directed by the wise field general.

It has been my pleasure to act as field general for Centre College during the past four years. It was necessary to change our style of play for each game.

From my experience at Cambridge in 1920 it was evident that our success in 1921 depended upon the ability of our field general to instantly diagnose each Harvard formation and meet it with the proper defense. As I backed up the line I was in a position to direct my linemen.

Those of you who saw the game will remember that I had my center out of the line on practically every pass that Buell attempted. Although our 1921 line was lighter than the line which Harvard whipped in 1920 we were able to stop their line thrusts because our center had been shifted up into line.

I have always tried to direct an offense which would require the least bit of energy because when we shift to the defense we want our backs and ends to have plenty of speed to come in fast on opponent's offense.

Resort To Strategy
In the Tulane, Auburn and Washington & Lee games last year our secondary defense always came in exceptionally fast and never allowed our opponents to gain around the ends or by forward passes.

Our team was criticized by a number of sport writers for getting our plays off so slow, especially was this noticeable in the Harvard game. Centre had a reason for using such methods.

On our close formation I would call a series which would indicate the point of attack. We would then try to widen the hole in the defense by calling short series of signals and shifting to and fro to pull the defense over. Just as soon as the hole was assured the snapping signal was called and our backs were through the hole like a streak.

Yes, it takes a smart team to play that kind of football, but, as I said before, 75 per cent of the game of football is played above the shoulders.

Team Will Get Down To Business
The Smoke House team will practice three or four nights this week as the boys will face stiff opposition when they go to Chillicothe next Sunday and play the Smoke House team of that city.

"BO" McMILLIN'S FIGHTING FACE

Two New Stars Appear

Saturday's game served the purpose of bringing to light two embryo stars who, barring accident, seem destined to become real gridiron luminaries.

One of them hails from Ohio and one from West Virginia, but each has gone out of his own state for his college education and football playing.

Parkin, the Iowa quarterback, who bewildered Yale Saturday and was easily the individual star of the game, aside from scoring the game's only touchdown, hails from West Virginia and before news of Saturday's game had reached Columbus a spectator at the State-Oberlin game who knows the young West Virginian predicted he would do just about what he did do.

Mahrt of West Virginia, whose kick beat Pittsburgh in the first game that the Mountaineers have won from that team in 20 years is a Dayton product and last year starred for Andover Academy. He is a cousin of Al Mahrt, the well-known professional player of Dayton.

State's Gross Football Receipts To Set New Mark

COLUMBUS, Oct. 17.—Regardless of the outcome of the Michigan game at this week end, in at least one respect Ohio State's football season is going to be even more successful than even the most sanguine hoped for six weeks ago.

Ohio State athletic officials, conservative business men, figured before the start of the season that gross football receipts for Ohio State this season would be in the neighborhood of $350,000, of which $25,000 would come from the sale of student tickets and $125,000 from the Michigan game.

Sale of student tickets has already established a new record at State. Instead of disposing of only $25,000 worth of student tickets, there have already been sold to students tickets which meant an outlay of $48,000, while receipts for the Michigan game are almost sure to be at least $150,000.

Thus with the Oberlin and West-Jean games drawing bigger crowds than expected and with the sale of student tickets and of tickets for the Michigan game surpassing all estimates, with the Chicago and Iowa games in the Stadium still to come, the season's gross receipts here will pass the $400,000 mark and there is a chance that the total will be nearer $700,000 than the original estimate of $350,000.

Don't be misled into believing that all of this money will go into the coffers of the Ohio State Athletic Association. Visiting Conference teams always receive 50 per cent of the gross receipts. What is left will be used in paying off the debt on the Stadium and in making contemplated improvements in the big structure.

ISSUES CHALLENGE TO HILLTOP ELEVEN

The Stag eleven, which defeated the Waits Specials Sunday morning by the score of 26 to 0, takes this method of challenging the Hilltop gridiron warriors to a contest to be played Sunday afternoon at one-thir-

Selects Practice Tonight

Captain Jude Baesman of the Selects has issued the first call for basketball practice tonight in the high school gym at 8 bells. They will practice Tuesday and Thursday nights until the season opens. The Selects have booked Ironton as their first game on December 5 in Ironton.

Plans are also being made for a Junior Selects team that will be under the protecting wings of the Selects. Coach Harry Wagner will look after the Selects again this season and will direct the Juniors should they organize. Edwards, A. Doll, H. Doll, Kent, Baugher, Kendall, Fortner and Baesman form the Selects. Any other basketball players wishing a place on the team are urged to turn out for practice.

Ironton Still Is Raving Over Victory

Ironton, O., Oct. 17.—The student body of Ironton high school went raving wild Monday morning when a committee composed of Messrs. E. B. Adams, E. J. Merrill, T. J. Kennedy, Leo Brumberg and Pete Burke presented, on behalf of the city, a medal to Ed Bickie, winner of the Ohio High school tennis singles championship. The presentation speech was made by E. J. Merrill, and as Bickie was at home ill, acceptance was made by Capt. E. O. Swan, and both made splendid addresses that roused the students to a high pitch.

Prof. Newton also displayed the plaque presented the school as a result of Bickie's victory and said that it would hang forever in the halls of Ironton high as a monument to the champion.

After the award of the medal the subject quite naturally turned to football and the great victory over Portsmouth was made the target with everybody aiming directly at the bullseye.

Capt. Shorty Davies in a brief talk, told the boys that one objective had been reached but that he believed the I. H. S. machine would be better than the famous club of 1919, which he, himself led.

The tennis championship medal presented to Ed Bickie, who went to Columbus without flourish and at his own expense, to take down the Ohio title, is a handsome gold one, beautifully engraved and will be a fitting remembrance of the great event. Quite a number of local young men contributed to the fund and feel well rewarded for their efforts.

The parade Monday afternoon was a real demonstration, covering the principal streets of the city.

Coach Fries To Shift P. H. S. Players

The high school football players were put through a stiff practice session on the Sixteenth street lot Monday afternoon. Coach Fries, disgusted with the tackling in last Saturday's game with Ironton, gave almost an hour's time to tackling the dummy and running players and after he let up on that branch of the game each and every player knew what he wanted in the way of tackling.

Pfau, Monk and Ellsesser all backfield men are suffering with injuries that may cripple the local team Friday afternoon when they meet Ashland high on the local field. Pfau has a bad ankle but he was out to practice last night and on the rubbing table said that he would certainly be in the game Friday although present indications are that he will not be in a No. 1 condition. Monk has a bad arm, leg, etc. but it is injured hard just the same and if injuries permit will be in the Friday Friday. Ellsesser's leg is yielding to treatment and he will no doubt get to start.

The probability of Pfau and Monk being out of the backfield is causing Coach Fries to shift some new players to the backfield in order to get men in shape for those positions should they be needed. Captain Brock may go to full with W. Moore and Ellsesser on the halves and "Duke" Moore at quarterback. Jacobs and Armstrong, ends, would then go into Brock's position at end. Several other candidates may be tried out in the backfield this week in order to get a line on players who can fill the job when called upon.

LANDIS WISHES TOURING PLAYERS "GOD SPEED" ON WORLD-WIDE TOUR

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(By the Associated Press) — Baseball commissioner Landis in a letter made public today, declared that "rich institutions of baseball will be advanced by your individual and collective performances" to a number of players composing a team enroute to the Pacific Coast to board a steamer for the Orient.

The players expect to sail for Japan Thursday to begin a series of exhibition games.

In wishing the players God speed, the baseball commissioner announced that George Moriarty, umpire of the American League, would serve as the umpire-in-chief in games played in Japan, Honolulu, Manila and other places.

On the other hand, the losers share of the pool amounting to $1,943.56, was divided into twenty-one full shares.

STUDENT TURNS SCALPER; ARRESTED

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(By the A. P.) — Further applications for tickets for the Princeton-Chicago football game here Oct. 28, will not be considered. It was announced today. The University of Chicago football ticket of-flee has been swamped with orders and go seats are left to offer at public sale.

Ticket scalpers are receiving attention from the authorities. Edward O'Brien, a college student, was fined $50 for scalping tickets.

Why Coach Yost Is Worrying

COLUMBUS, Oct. 17.—Many Columbus football fans have been lulled into a feeling of false security by a rumor to the effect that athletic officials at Ohio State will build temporary seats at the south end of the Stadium for Saturday's game with Michigan.

Unless there is a decided change of opinion between now and Saturday there will be no temporary seats built. Of course there is the possibility that this will be done, but at present it seems extremely doubtful.

Some One Else Worries
Here's some consolation for the thousands of Columbus people who have been fretting, fuming and worrying about the outcome of next Saturday's game with Michigan.

Columbus people aren't the only ones who are worrying. Jim Durfee, well known Columbus football official, read yesterday from Cincinnati to Dayton with Coach Yost and the members of the Michigan team.

"Yost is worried about the State game," said Durfee last night. "He insists that State has a powerful eleven which is going to be mighty hard to beat at the week end. Don't think that so far as Yost is concerned there is any overconfidence."

Downey Wins

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 17.—Anthony Downey, Cincinnati welterweight, defeated Speedy Sparks of Oklahoma, for the third time, in a ten round boxing bout here last night. Both took turns in leading and mixing, but the milling was not as fast as in their last encounter. The first three rounds were even. Downey took the next six and Sparks the tenth according to newspapermen at the ring side.

Downey is matched to meet Billy Ryan in this city on November 19, for the championship of Cincinnati.

STROLLERS TO PLAY Ironton EAGLES

The Smoke House Strollers of New Boston will play their first football game of the season Sunday afternoon when they meet the Ironton Eagles on the Millbrook gridiron. The game will be called at 2:30 sharp. New Boston has a well balanced team of experienced players in the Strollers and they are sure to give the Eagles of Ironton a real battle.

Last Sunday's game between Ashland and the Strollers was cancelled Saturday.

Game Will Start At 2:30
On account of the Ohio State-Michigan game at Columbus next Saturday the Portsmouth high school and Ashland football game was booked for Friday afternoon. Today it was announced that the game would start at 2:30 o'clock Friday and no later. The high school students are expected to turn out in a body for this contest, the students to march from the high school to the football field.

Divide Spoils

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Players on the Chicago White Sox Club which lost the title of City Champions to the Cubs yesterday, received almost as much money per man as their share of the players' amount, as the new title holders, it was revealed today.

Leslie O'Connor, secretary to baseball commissioner Landis said that the Cubs, whose share of the pool was $14,706.85 decided to split the amount into twenty-six full shares so that the mascot, ground keeper and several others would share. On the other hand, the losers share of the pool amounting to $1,943.56, was divided into twenty-one full shares.

Boxing News

Philadelphia has been nursing an ambition for a long time to develop some kind of a ring champion.

Law Tondler was a bright prospect for the lightweight championship for several years and he is yet, but they doubt that the southpaw star will get another chance at Tommy Leonard.

Bobby Barret was a big hope for a time, but he was brought along too fast and passed out rather tragically.

Tommy Loughran, a middleweight is now the rage. His showing recently against Harry Greb, the American light heavyweight champion, and Gene Tunney, the former champion, made him a fine prospect.

He is still under the voting age and if he is not handled wisely as Barret was, he ought to go a long way in the game, if he never gets a title.

With Battling Siki and Pancho Villa occupying places in championship row, the old war for a white hope will be in order soon. There is the Spanish Firpo looking up in the distance and one Harry Wills also is a somebody in figure.

THE MAYOR — A BRICK PLANT — THE PEOPLE

As one deeply interested in the future of Second street, the oldest residence street in Portsmouth, and the future welfare of the city, we sincerely regret the action of the city board of control, composed of Mayor William N. Gableman, Safety Director Si Straus and Service Director William Gergens, in rejecting the bids for re-surfacing this street, along with Gallia. There might be some slight excuse for argument on Gallia, there can be none on Second.

The "reasons" assigned for the rejection are, considering all that has been said, and the willingness of the low bidder to take his chances on getting his money, unworthy of notice. And the wiggling and wobbling of the city administration in the whole transaction, were to say the least, not at all creditable to it.

We did hesitate to say all that we thought on this re-surfacing proposition, for the reason that members of our family are heavily interested in real estate on Second street. Yet their property there and in other parts of the city, is of the best character, it is on the tax duplicate at high valuations, and they pay large sums in taxation. They are not tax dodgers and they do not conceal intangible properties from the assessor. They give much employment to many varieties of trades in the care, remodeling and maintenance of their properties, and we are sure that those who have worked for them will vouch that they pay promptly, they are not unreasonable, and they pay the best prices going. So probably after all it is well that we should come into such close and intimate contact with the property owners' and the taxpayers' side of a municipal controversy, as in the present case.

Now Second street paving is old, it is rutty, rough, noisy. The majority of the property owners between Chillicothe and Waller street asked that their street be re-surfaced with sheet asphalt. All of the signers were good, many heavy tax payers. They felt that with their interests in the city, with their desire to improve and to beautify their properties, they should receive respectful and favorable consideration.

They did—from council.

They did not—from the board of control, the court of last resort.

We say this deliberately, advisedly. We took no part in the row that preceded the rejection of the bids. We refused to attempt to use any influence we had, or some may have thought we had, with the city administration. Incidentally we have not at any time flattered ourselves on possessing any "pull" in either city or county affairs, nor do we covet any such "pull." We simply said to those who came to us that Mayor Gableman had hitherto shown himself most watchful of the interests of the tax payers and that when it came to choice between the wishes of a great majority of progressive, Portsmouth-loving people such as comprised the signers of the petition on Gallia and Second streets, and the short-sighted urgings of a brick plant manager, the Mayor would be found on the side of the people. We were mistaken this one time in the Mayor. That is all. And now we are at liberty to say to the readers of The Times what we think about it. We do this with the utmost sorrow for we admire the Mayor, and it hurts to have to criticize an official for whom personally one has the greatest affection. We have not lost confidence in Mayor Gableman, but we think he made a sad blunder this one time.

We have called the attitude of the paving brick men short-sighted. And so it was. There was and is, no disposition to fight brick as a new construction. We have always stood for it. And we see no reason to change our minds. But we see also, no reason why this city and this county should be bound hand and foot to a brick monopoly, a sign put up that no other material interests need apply. We know what that will mean. We know that it will mean higher prices for our county roads, our city streets, our city alleys. If any one doubts this, we invite their attention to some comparative figures we will submit soon on the cost of paving with and without competition.

We have been told too, that the paving brick interests have entered into politics, seeing to it that men favorable to them and them only, are nominated and elected. Their interest is bi-partisan. But whisper it, 'tis said they came a cropper at the last republican primary when they picked a certain man as the favorite in the commissioner race and exerted themselves to put him under the wire a winner. Of course, our readers need not be told that the entrance of any selfish interest into the nomination and election of officials who will pass upon their product, is unwise, subversive of good government. It is bad for the interests involved, it is bound to work out to the detriment of the taxpayers.

We are of an open mind. And if any one can show us why the placing of a little sheet asphalt on two streets to fill up depressions, make the street smoother and quieter, should vitally affect the brick industry of Scioto county, we are willing to confess our mistake.

But we would still wonder why almost every other progressive city in the land is doing what the property owners on two streets wanted done here?

WHAT THE TIMES IS DOING

We do not like to blow our own horn but it is most pleasing news to one's ears when a person like Ben Jones of Oak Hill drops into this office and remarks: "I just came in to tell you that you have a dandy paper and that Oak Hill citizens are very much pleased with the fresh news carried in the Daily Times and the fine service you are rendering in getting the paper to us each evening." The Times is delivered at South Webster, Black Fork, Oak Hill, Jackson and other smaller places each evening at about the same time the citizens of Portsmouth receive their papers.

THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE

We hope you have started and will continue to read our little serial on how the county tax spenders get away with the money collected from you, for we are going to begin throwing on some side-lights in a few days. But before we take up the question we have one thing to say. You may have noticed that the old building out at Sixth and Court is as thick with deputies as a stray dog with fleas. Doubtless you also wonder how they get about without falling over each other. But without discussing this, we wish to call attention to the fact that all of the offices in the county that should be adequately supplied with deputies, and at good, if not high salaries, namely the sheriff's office, there is a lack, both in number and in pay. The Sheriff's office is the most important, it is the hardest worked of all. It's chief and his deputies daily take their lives in their hands. They are subject to call at any hour of the day or night, upon them depends the safety and the well-being of the citizens of the county.

We submit that there should be no growling about salaries in this office. Rather they should be increased for the deputies and from what we know of county conditions, we would say that another should be added.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, October 17—This is one of the days when I'm in the delirium of an out-door mood. Manhattan is being drenched with rain and the streets are dismal. An the printers must have copy. Noble souls printers! Many times they've saved me from going lunchless.

On my desk is a scratch pad I call the "dope sheet." It is criss-crossed with fragmentary notions of things I have seen brooding about. At the top is scrawled "prize fight." Let me see! O, yes. At a Madison Square boxing match a poor dub of a fighter was being hammered to a pulp.

In the fourth round his opponent swung a wallop from the floor that landed squarely on the dub's chin. He began slowly to crumple to the floor and a rough neck in the gallery stood up and megaphoned: "O'Brien now catching for New York." No sense to that. But funny to hear.

Then a notation reading "Curtain caricature" which is a bit personal. I am told a caricature of myself along with 50 others adorns a drop curtain in the Greenwich Village Follies. I must see that. Another scribble reads "Crusoe color." A treacherous memory fails me on that one.

The line "circus midget and actor" concerns a story that has no place in a family journal, but what a panic it would be in a Pullman smoker. "Silk hats" conveys news that the white-lined loveliness cape is now being worn in the evening by the still-hatted crowd of nifty dressers.

In the bold feminine hand of my wife flares the notice "Pay Miller today." I'll skip that one. No use mixing business with art. "Juniper Jokes and Turpitude"—I can't fathom that either. "Lone Wolf" reminds me to write a congratulatory letter to Louis Joseph Vance on his latest novel.

"Dah!" reminds me that Arnold Daly has had his usual fit of temper in a new play and threatens to leave it. There are a dozen more notations that I discard as worthless. At the moment I am fascinated by a man across the street who resembles John J. Boonness himself. He is under an awning trying to keep out of the rain. He is the most magnificent dressed man I have ever seen. And the only man I've seen since Harry Lohr was brave enough to wear white spats in the rain.

He is a man who has a vaudeville act wherein he exhibits trained seals. The curious may wonder what urge prompts a man to devote his life to training seals. This particular trainer used to be a sheep-herder in Arizona. His nights were spent in the open under the patient stars. One day he came to New York and visited the aquarium. The seal it fascinated him and he spent all of his time there. From this fascination developed his present act.

A gap and his current fiancée were walking down Broadway hand in hand. They passed a blind man standing near a subway kiosk. The gap fumbled in his pocket for change and his face took on a worried look. Finally he tossed his overcoat over the arm that held the tin-cup and walked on.

The pinch-back style of coat shows increasing popularity along the avenue. The reason is not difficult to discern. All the pictures of the Prince of Wales show him in this style coat. And the Prince sets the styles for Fall Mail as well as Fifth Avenue.

Every forty-five seconds a watch is pawned in greater Manhattan, according to figures compiled by pawn-brokers. Most of the watches are pawned in the Times Square district. Down on the Bowers where most of the pawnshops are located, they haven't watches to pawn, but they pawn gold teeth, glass eyes and wooden legs. One old Bowers settler pawns his peg leg every morning before going out begging and retires it in the evening.

The Old-Time Brother

Want to see the sparks fly
From the Gospel wagon-spokes,
Rear the "Amen" toll it, brother,
Of the halloo! folks!
Want to hear the old tunes
A-ringing 'round the place,
From Greenland's icy Mountains
And old "Amazin' Grace!"

Want to see the old church
Where we read our titles high,
And the windows where the angels
Were a-listenin' in the sky;
Where the good seed sown in spring-time
Came to harvest in the fall,
And the Gospel Sun was shinin'
On the hearts o' houses of all.

I reckon it's old-fashioned,
But in this new-fangled day
You can't enjoy religion
'Less you're feelin' thataway;

You want the "Amen Corner,"
An' you want it 'fess as loud
As the Lord'll let you have it
With the halloo! crowd!

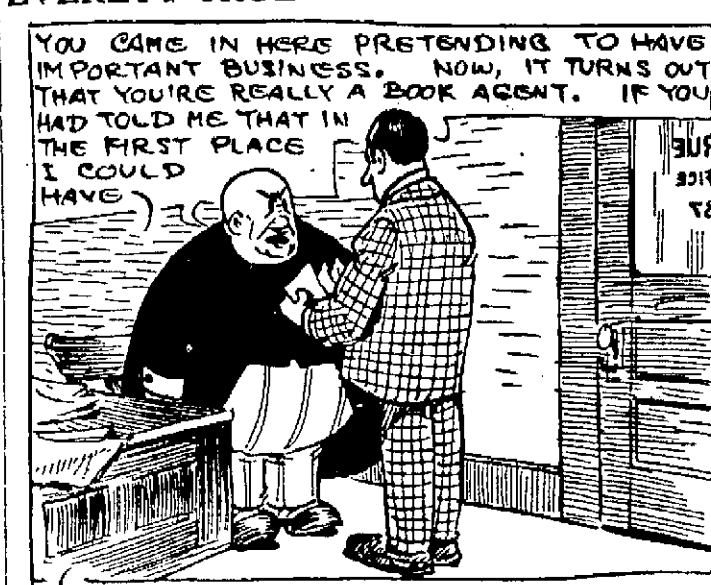

Hurry Call

"Waiter," complained the irritable customer, "what the devil do you mean bringing me my fish before the soup order?"

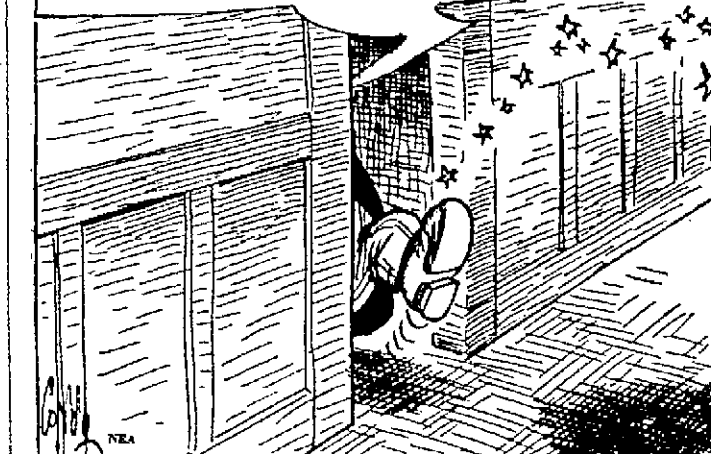

The waiter leaned over confidentially. "Just between ourselves, sir," he explained, "I did it to help you. You see, the fish wouldn't have lasted five minutes longer."

OH MAN—BY BRIGGS

Bully Sport

Senora Pilar Sereida, the Spanish painter, was defending the bull fight at a dinner in New York.

"An American visitor to Madrid," she said, "left the bull fight one afternoon in disgust."

"What a fool animal the bull is!" he said. "It will spend hours chasing a red cloak round and round the ring."

And then the American saw a pair of flashing black eyes, and he spent hours chasing a red cloak round and round the town.—Selected.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED

YOU remember an unmarried woman pays the first call of the season on a married woman. Also, it is customary for the younger matrons to call first upon the older ones.

Brides usually wait to receive first calls and it is usual for neighbors and friends to call and leave cards immediately upon the return from the honeymoon.
